

Customs English Online

For Upper-Intermediate Students

AUSSENWIRTSCHAFTS-AKADEMIE

HAMBURGER
ZOLLAKADEMIE

This English course is designed to help customs practitioners improve their mastery of customs terminology and expression. The focus of the course is customs English within an EU context.

Besides the UCC and its procedures, topics include international agreements and instruments, contracts and business correspondence.

By encouraging discussion, the course will explain language errors and improve idiomatic expression using practical examples. Overall, the course will provide participants with a sound basis for continuing to develop and improve their English skills.

The trainer is a native English speaker and jurist, well acquainted with customs legal terminology.

This language course consists of 10 webinars of 60 minutes each, which are structured as follows:

- discussion of topics and related themes
- recapitulation of language points
- Q&A

Your benefits

As the world language, a sound command of English is an essential requirement for an international career. The higher your level of English, the greater the opportunities for utilising the latest publications by international organisations and academia thereby ensuring your trade strategies are accurate and forward-thinking.

It will also expand your opportunities for self-development, enabling you to participate in international conferences or postgraduate programmes as well as maintain effective dialogue with colleagues from other countries.

This webinar is being held in co-operation with AWA AUSSENWIRTSCHAFTS-AKADEMIE.
